

Sustainability policy of Woola Filipinas

This policy will apply to all operations, from management to the executive level of our company. Staff, suppliers, and partners are expected to fully uphold objectives under this policy whenever possible within prevailing budgets.

Sustainability management & legal compliance

Sustainability commitment

Woola Filipinas leadership is wholly committed to the company's sustainability performance and endorses the company's sustainability mission statement and policy.

We will use the Travelife platform to report on our sustainability progress and to monitor and evaluate progress. We are committed to (publicly) communicating our sustainability performance (by means of the Travelife report) every two years.

Sustainability management & legal compliance

Woola Filipinas commits to continuous improvement of sustainability practices, including the ongoing monitoring and evaluation of our sustainability policy, with dedicated personnel and resources to achieve our sustainability goals.

Woola Filipinas follows all local, regional, national, and international regulations as they relate to human resources, human rights, children's rights, land rights, environmental management, wildlife, and land use. We follow a strict Code of Ethics, including a zero-tolerance policy for corruption, bribery, forced labor, and discrimination.

Internal management: social policy & human rights

Employees

- We recognize that our employees are our biggest asset for delivering meaningful travel experiences to our customers. Therefore, we maintain a clear human resource policy to ensure:
  - Legal compliance in all regards
  - A safe, healthy, and welcoming workplace
  - Fair contract conditions including fair compensation
  - Training opportunities including trainings on topics of sustainability, sexual harassment and exploitation in the workplace and in the industry
  - Participation in the sustainability planning activities
  - Inclusion and equal opportunity for all employees, particularly with regard to compensation, promotion, distribution of benefits, and professional development opportunities.

Internal management: environment

Environmental management of office operations

Woola Filipinas is committed to managing environmental impact as an integral part of our operations. It is our policy to assure the environmental integrity of our processes and products at all times by:

- Continuously seeking opportunities to improve our environmental performance by establishing objectives and targets, measuring progress, and reporting our results, including but not limited to energy, water, paper, and carbon.
- Practising a waste hierarchical approach to always reduce, reuse, and recycle commodities and products instead of waste, particularly waste to landfill.
- Promoting participation and communicating our commitment to responsible environmental management by promoting environmental responsibility amongst our employees and stakeholders and soliciting input from them to better achieve our environmental goals.
- Minimising pollution including light, noise, and any soil, water, or air contaminants, and avoiding use of any toxic or hazardous substances.

Carbon management of office operations

Woola Filipinas is committed to reducing our carbon footprint and endeavours to reduce the amount we travel as much as possible by:

- Reduce the amount we travel as much as possible
- Monitoring and measuring carbon footprint with the aim to reduce as much as possible and offset remaining amounts.
- Encouraging remote work whenever possible, and when it is not possible, making it easier for employees to limit their carbon footprint by use of eco modes of transportation.

Land use

- Woola Filipinas offices are located in a [urban/suburban/rural] area and abides by all local land use laws, respects local cultural and natural resources in our business operations, and favours sustainable architecture and design.

General suppliers policy

- Woola Filipinas is committed to sourcing its products and services responsibly, avoiding harmful impacts on society, culture and nature as much as possible. We expect the same level of engagement and commitment from our suppliers.
- Woola Filipinas prefers to work with partners that share the company's commitment towards sustainability. This means that we prefer partners that have a written sustainability statement as an integral part of their business policy and/or a clear sustainability policy in place.
- Woola Filipinas prefers to work with suppliers in the destinations that are locally owned or managed, use local and seasonal products and services and benefit the local community by hiring locally and equitably and by providing fair working conditions.
- Whenever possible, Woola Filipinas prefers to select partner companies that comply with tourism-specific, internationally recognized (GSTC-accredited) certifications, or other sustainability certifications like B Corp or ISO.

- Woola Filipinas offers incentives for partners that are actively engaged in sustainable operations.
- Woola Filipinas expects its suppliers to adhere to a Code of Ethics, that includes the following responsible business practices:
  - Complying with all local, regional, national and international regulations
  - Respecting all human rights including labour rights, children's rights, and women's rights
  - Committing to fair employment conditions
  - Following anti-corruption, anti-bribery, anti-extortion, and anti-discrimination policies
  - Protecting children from (sexual) exploitation through tourism
  - Protecting the environment and natural resources
  - Acting in the best interest of local communities
  - Protecting the interests of Woola Filipinas.

Our complete supplier Code of Ethics is available here: <https://woolafilipinas.com/https://woolafilipinascom/es/sostenibilidad/>

- Following a zero-tolerance policy, Woola Filipinas will immediately terminate any relationships with suppliers that violate our Code of Ethics, specifically through acts of bribery, corruption, discrimination, and violation of human rights.
- Woola Filipinas raises awareness amongst its suppliers to adopt sound social and environmental practices, and to minimise their carbon footprint.
- Woola Filipinas actively collaborates with suppliers to improve their sustainability performance. We encourage our suppliers to continuously learn about sustainability and provide/support this learning whenever possible.
- Woola Filipinas maintains open lines of communication with our suppliers and partners and encourage feedback from our stakeholders at any time and on any topic, particularly sustainability.

Inbound partner agencies

- Woola Filipinas only works with partner agencies that adhere to the company's Code of Ethics.

- In the entire process of developing and operating our travel packages, Woola Filipinas expects partner agencies to act in the best interests of the surrounding communities and environment as well as our guests.
- Woola Filipinas provides partner agencies opportunities for sustainability learning and management, including free access to the Travelife online learning and reporting platform.

Transport

- Woola Filipinas only works with transport providers that adhere to the company's Code of Ethics.
- When selecting transport for guests and business related travel, Woola Filipinas commits to choosing the most environmentally friendly options available for travelling to, from, and within the destination – taking into consideration distance, price, route, and comfort.
- Woola Filipinas has implemented clear guidelines for reducing GHG emissions from transport and selecting the most environmentally friendly transport options, including the following measures:
  - Preferring ground transport over air transport for short-haul travel destinations
  - Avoiding in-destination flights as much as possible
  - Offering rail-and-fly transport to and from the airport
  - Using public transportation options in the destinations
  - Using appropriate vehicle sizes for group sizes and purchasing most efficient vehicles available
  - Training drivers on eco-driving techniques
- Woola Filipinas endeavours – and has a system in place – to measure and compensate for the unavoidable GHG emissions produced from transportation. Compensation costs are either included by default in the package price or compensation is actively promoted to the clients as a booking option.

Accommodations

- Woola Filipinas only works with accommodations that adhere to the company's Code of Ethics.
- In the accommodation selection process, Woola Filipinas considers the sustainability practices of an accommodation by taking into account their sustainability management and social and environmental footprint.
- Woola Filipinas favours the selection of accommodations that respect and protect land use, as well as respectfully highlight elements of local architecture, customs and traditions.

Activities & Excursions

- Woola Filipinas only works with excursion providers that adhere to the company's Code of Ethics.
- All excursion suppliers must commit to respect basic human rights and fight against child exploitation. All excursions and activities run by or on behalf of Woola Filipinas respect local customs, traditions, cultural integrity, and natural resources.
- Woola Filipinas commits to not offering any excursions that harm humans, wildlife, environment, or natural resources such as water and energy.
- Woola Filipinas gives preference to excursions and activities that benefit local communities, respect animal welfare and support environmental protection.
- Woola Filipinas has clear Codes of Conduct in place for environmentally and culturally sensitive excursions offered by or on behalf of the company. These guidelines are actively communicated to guests as well as distributed and implemented by excursion providers and guides.
- Woola Filipinas provides excursion and attraction providers opportunities for sustainability learning and management, including free access to the Travelife online learning and reporting platform.

Tour leaders, local representatives, and guides

- Woola Filipinas commits to hiring qualified local guides, porters, drivers or other local staff, paying them living wages and providing safe and fair working conditions. We expect the same from our suppliers that are hiring local staff on behalf of Woola Filipinas .
- Woola Filipinas understands that guides are the intermediaries between the guests and the socio-cultural and environmental context of the destination, conveying the appropriate behaviour to them. Therefore, we make sure that all guides hired by or leading tours on behalf of Woola Filipinas are trained regularly and knowledgeable in the sustainability topics of the destination.
- Our guides are specifically trained on the critical issue of sexual exploitation of children in tourism.
- Woola Filipinas provides guides with learning opportunities on sustainability topics including providing free access to the Travelife online learning platform.

Destinations

Sustainable destinations

- Woola Filipinas prefers to work in destinations that have committed to sustainability as an integral part of
